

TERMS OF USE

Missouri Foundation for Health and/or One for All is providing information and services on this website as a benefit to our users. The information and services on this site are provided solely for educational and resource provision purposes. Neither the Site Sponsor nor its information contributors make any express or implied representations or warranties about the completeness or accuracy of this information and these services for any purpose, or the suitability of this information or these services for any particular use.

This website may include “links” providing direct access to other websites. However, the Site Sponsor takes no responsibility for the content or information contained on those other sites, and does not exert any editorial, monitoring or other control over those other sites and, therefore, does not assume any liability for those sites or their content. The Site Sponsor reserves the right to remove any link from this site for any or no reason. The existence of any particular link is simply intended to imply potential interest to users of this site. Please remember that when you use a link to go from our website to another website, our Privacy Policy is no longer in effect. Your browsing and interaction on any other website, including websites which have a link on our website, is subject to that website's own rules and policies. Please read over those rules and policies before proceeding.

Certain areas of the site may allow for the submission of users’ personal information. Users that submit information to this site grant the Site Sponsor the authority and right to use any submission in any way, and by such submissions, warrant and represent to the Site Sponsor that such submissions are not in violation of United States copyright or other laws. In addition, the Site Sponsor reserves the right to review, edit, or delete any information (including, without limitation, those that appear to be inappropriate for the intended purposes of this site). Note: Any information that you include in your submission will be available to the Site Sponsor, including without limitation, personal, health, and demographic information.

All images, text, and other materials posted on this site are subject to copyrights owned by the Site Sponsor or other individuals or entities and are protected by United States copyright laws. Any reproduction, retransmission, distribution or republication of all or part of any images, text programs, and other materials found on this site is expressly prohibited, unless the Site Sponsor or the copyright owner of the material has expressly granted its prior written consent. All other rights reserved. This site is intended to be maintained in a manner consistent with United States copyright laws. Accordingly, users should not submit or post copyrighted material to this site unless the copyright owner of the material has expressly granted its prior written consent to such submission.

All trademarks, service marks, and logos referred to or appearing on this site are the property of their respective owners. The names, trademarks, service marks, and logos of the Site Sponsor appearing on this site may not be used in any advertising or publicity, or otherwise to indicate sponsorship of or affiliation with any product or service, without the applicable Site Sponsor’s prior express written permission.

PRIVACY POLICY

Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All have created this Privacy Policy to demonstrate our commitment to your privacy. This statement explains our information-gathering and dissemination practices for this website.

1. Collection of Personal Information

Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All do not require a user to submit personal information when accessing this website. However, if you decide to submit a personal story with your contact information, you agree that your story can be shared with the general public. A representative from Missouri Foundation for Health or One for All may contact you for additional information, clarification, or permission to share contact details with others.

The first visit you make to the Missouri Foundation for Health One for All website places a “cookie” on your computer. A cookie is a small file containing a string of characters that uniquely identifies your browser. The cookie will allow you to see or not to see items upon subsequent visits. This technology is not intended to identify you to us in any way; however, it can be used to serve ads to you based on your visit to our site. Click here to learn more about opting out of data collection by Google Analytics, or click here to customize Google display network ad settings for your browser.

2. How we use your information

The information Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All collect is used to comprehensively understand your needs and interests, and permits us to deliver a more consistent and personalized experience. For example, we may use your information to communicate with you about our services, provide service and support, update you on new services and benefits, or contact you for market research. Your information may be aggregated with other users’ information on a purely non-identifiable basis to understand how our services are used to help make them better.

3. Policy on sharing your information

Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All will not sell, rent or lease your personal information to others. We may share personal information with companies working on our behalf. In any such cases, however, we require that the companies adhere to privacy standards and policies at least as restrictive as those Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All have in place. We urge you not to provide any confidential personal information to us via electronic communication. If you do so, it is at your own risk. Although we attempt to maintain our computer network in a secure manner to protect the content of your messages, we cannot provide absolute assurance that the contents of your email will not become accessible to individuals or entities that are not authorized to access your information.

We may also use your information if we have a good faith belief that access, use, preservation or disclosure of your information is reasonably necessary to: (a) satisfy any applicable law, regulation, legal process or legitimate governmental request, (b) detect, prevent, or otherwise address suspected fraud, security or technical issues, (c) enforce any applicable Terms of Use, including investigation of potential violations thereof, or (d) protect against imminent harm to the rights, property or safety of Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All, our users or the general public as required or permitted by law.

4. Sites covered by this Privacy Policy

The Missouri Foundation for Health One for All website (oneforallmo.com) may from time-to-time link to third-party websites for your convenience and to provide easy access to additional useful information. Should you select such a link you will leave the Missouri Foundation for Health One for All website. Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All do not control those sites nor their privacy practices, which may differ from Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All 's practices and policies. Any personal data you choose to provide to or that is collected by such third parties is not in any way covered by Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All's Privacy Policy. We recommend that you read over such website's privacy policy before providing any personal information. A link to another website from Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All does not constitute an endorsement or representation about the value, quality or usefulness of anything found on that third-party website.

5. Access to and accuracy of your information

Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All strive to keep your personal information accurate and up-to-date. Towards this goal we utilize various technology, management processes and policies. As part of our overall data accuracy initiative Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All provide you with reasonable access to your personal information so you may review and correct your information if needed. To safeguard your privacy and security, we will verify your identity through various means, such as by requiring a password and user ID, before granting access to your data. We ask that you update your information as and when it changes so any information used to serve you remains as accurate as possible.

6. Keeping your information secure

Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All value your trust and take it seriously. To prevent unauthorized access and disclosure, to maintain data accuracy, and to ensure the appropriate use of your information, Missouri Foundation for Health and One for All utilize industry standard physical, technical and administrative procedures to safeguard any personal information we collect.

7. Changes to this policy

The world of technology changes quickly. If and when there are future changes to our Privacy Policy in response we will post them at oneforallmo.com.
